

Herb Rule – Passionate and Generous

Herb Rule made the faithful and generous decision to support our Church's ministries during his life and after his death through a planned gift. He was passionate about our music program and continuing education for pastors in the area of preaching. In addition to practicing law, Herb was a public servant who was always ready for the next fight to help those less fortunate than he.

He was a lifelong member and an ordained elder at our Church. He was also a member of the Outreach Ministry for most of his adult life. He was instrumental in the creation of Stewpot and volunteered for there for many decades. He was an active volunteer for Family Promise, Bale Elementary School, and an active member of the church's hospital visitation team. Herb was also a dedicated member of our choir.

Because of the Rule family's passion for music, over three decades ago, he and his brother, Jim Rule, and their sister, Joan Campbell, established a music endowment in memory of their parents. This endowment has grown and added beautiful music to our All Saints service for many years.

Many thanks to Herb for his passion to help others and our church's ministries.
