

LIVES OF SERVICE AND GENEROSITY

Betty Jean and Park Moore were married for almost 69 years. They served pastorates in North Carolina and Mississippi before being called to our Church in 1983. Park served as associate pastor until retirement in 1990 and Betty Jean served our Church alongside Park and was active in many areas including Presbyterian Women. She was awarded the Honorary Life Membership four times during her years of service to five churches. After Park's retirement, their passion was our Church's history. They spent countless hours gathering, organizing and cataloging our rich one hundred forty-two-year history, including research on fourteen charter members and the three physical locations we've occupied, a leadership role in providing services for the underserved in our community, and the stances we've taken in civil and human rights. Please check-out their hard work and learn about our history in our Heritage Room.

In addition to their service, Park and Betty Jean led frugal and generous lives with their God-given resources. They made the loving and faithful decision to give our Church a generous gift to be invested in our Endowment Fund to support all of the ministries of Second Presbyterian Church, such as pastoral care and outreach missions. Thanks be to God for the lives of Betty Jean and Park.
