THE SERVICE OF WITNESS TO THE RESURRECTION

The Service of Witness to the Resurrection is an affirmation of faith in God's love for all people, a love that strengthens and supports, even in the midst of grief. In this service we bear witness to the sure and certain hope of eternal life, promised in the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The resurrection is a central doctrine of the Christian faith, and shapes Christians' attitudes and responses to the event of death. Death brings loss, sorrow, and grief to all. We don't deny those emotions and experiences. In the face of death Christians affirm with tears and joy the hope of the Gospel. The joy and triumph of Christ's resurrection is proclaimed through the hymns we sing, the prayers we offer and the scriptures we read.

Furthermore, Christians do not bear bereavement in isolation, but are sustained by the power of the Spirit in and through the community of faith. The church is that community of faith that offers a ministry of love and hope to all who grieve.

The Paschal Candles on the Communion table symbolize the light of the risen Christ, which shines even in the midst of the darkness of death. The cross above the chancel reminds us of Christ's ultimate sacrifice that gives us the gift of life after death. And the silences in our worship remind us of the loneliness of death that are greeted by the joyful sounds of worship, reminding us that God has triumphed over death.

PSALTER (UNISON) PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters; He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father, Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
